

DAISY VEACOCK

Daisy Veacock is carving out a space for herself in the bustling London music scene with a unique blend of pop and jazz that speaks to the heart of urban life. Her incisive lyricism blends personal experiences with universal themes, capturing the essence of young life in London.

Influenced by Lily Allen, Amy Winehouse, and old-school jazz, rhythm, and blues, her style is unique and undeniably 'Daisy'.

Her breakthrough single 'Pickle Juice,' made waves on TikTok in 2022, and the release of her single 'Give It Up (Give Him A Call),' in 2023 left everyone asking, "Who's George?!" Daisy's first release in 2024, 'float right back to you,' saw her cover featured by Spotify Fresh Finds UK & IE, and earned her first BBC Radio 1 play on Future Pop.

Daisy recently completed her fourth tour supporting Jools Holland, which included a performance at The Royal Albert Hall in November 2023. In 2024, she performed at Glastonbury Festival and Jodie Bryant's Discover Live with her full band, as well as Sofar Sounds and several summer festivals.

A regular on the London circuit, Daisy is one to watch in 2024.
